

About Us

Contributed by Administrator
Thursday, 26 April 2007

USA Progressive Music

Founded by progressive music enthusiast Jill Hughes in March 2007, the site's goal is to provide up-to-date content to help promote progressive type music (all subgenres including melodic power metal) in the United States of America. This includes CD/DVD/Concert reviews, interviews, article features, photos, and interactive features like the ability to comment reviews for registered users.

Disclaimer: All logos, graphics, photographs, and CD and DVD cover images used on this website are the property of their respective copyright holders or creators. These images are used for the visual enhancement of the content provided. All editorial and review content is solely the opinion of the individual contributor and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the webmaster.

Copyright: If you use written material from this website in any capacity (whether it be quoting a review or article or interview), please reference the author and the website URL. This is copyrighted material. Thank you!